

Election Committee Volunteers

The following members have volunteered to serve on the Election Committee for the Executive Committee election. Below is some information about each volunteer.

Members:

Name: Tedman Lee

Employer: City & County of San Francisco, San Francisco Public Utilities Commission, Engineering Management Bureau

Job Classification: Senior Civil Engineer

Statement: I have been the President of the Professional Engineers chapter in San Francisco since 2009. I was a member of the Elections Committee in 2010 for the 2011-2012 Executive Committee elections and the chair of the Elections Committee in 2012 and 2014 for the 2013-2014 and 2015-2017 Executive Committee elections.

Name: Ken Feliciano

Employer: City of San Jose

Job Classification: Information Systems Analyst

Statement: I am an Information Systems Analyst with the City of San Jose's Environmental Services Department. I specialize in turning business processes into technical solutions and maintaining data and applications related to the laboratory, permitting, inspections, sampling, and billing. I've been with the City for almost 18 years and in CAMP since before we affiliated with IFPTE in 2010 and MEF before that. I've been active on the CAMP board for the last several years.

Name: Carletta L. Starks

Employer: Port of Oakland

Job Classification: Aviation Project Coordinator, Non-Exempt

Statement: As a member of Port of Oakland Local 21, I have been active in moving our chapter and IFPTE forward by participating whenever and wherever I can. For instance, I have been involved in advocating for union rights through phone banking, meetings, and letter writing. In addition, I participate in regular outreach to inform others about issues affecting unions. Currently, I am the Vice President for Unit L and training to be a Steward at the Port of Oakland. My philosophy is to do whatever it is in my power to do to ensure that unions continue to thrive. I participated on the Election Committee in 2014 and will be honored to do so again to help ensure a fair and honest election. Thank you for your support!

Alternates:

Name: Adam Down

Employer: Contra Costa County

Job Classification: Administrative Services Assistant III

Statement: I am an Administrative Services Assistant III specializing in administrative projects for the Behavioral Health Division of Contra Costa County's Health Services Department. I have been a member of the Contra Costa County Chapter Local 21 since 2012 and a member of the Steward Council and Executive Board of the Chapter since 2014. In 2015 I was proud to serve on the contract bargaining team that led to a successful settlement with the County.

Name: Rosie Scott

Employer: City & County of San Francisco

Job Classification: Executive Secretary II

Statement: I started my work career with the City and County of San Francisco in the early 1990s. I have worked for five City departments and have been actively involved in union activities. For my job, I perform on-line scheduling; coordinate and follow-up on executive meetings and arrange phone conferencing, meetings, hosting various events for special functions. I perform effective communication with city, government officials, corporations and their management staff. In my role, I compose, review and edit letters & memos and handle confidential documents, assist with budget document preparations; prepare business travel itinerary and coordination and reimbursement.

Name: Al Lujan

Employer: City of Oakland

Job Classification: Supervisor, Oaklanders Assistance Center

Statement: I am the former Vice President of the A&W Chapter for the city of Oakland, having served in that role for over 8 years. I serve as Supervisor of the Oaklanders' Assistance Center, the city's information and referral center, under Mayor's Jerry Brown, Ronald V. Dellums, Mayor Jean Quan and currently for Mayor Libby Schaaf. I coordinate the Mayor's Community Toy Drive, which serves over 8,000 children in low income families. I am a proud and vocal union member and has served on the contract negotiating team for the last three rounds, when the city tried and failed to impose more cuts to workers' salaries. I have served on the election committee twice before during chapter elections. When I'm not on the picket line, canvassing or at a phone bank, I am a single father, artist, writer and filmmaker. I raise funds annually for the San Francisco AIDS Foundation and The American Foundation for Suicide Prevention
