- E. CEB meetings shall require a quorum of three CEB members.
- F. A quorum of CEB members in attendance at a regular or special General Membership meeting may serve in lieu of a CEB meeting.

V. OFFICERS OF THE CHAPTER - REQUIREMENTS AND DUTIES

- A. The officers of the Chapter shall be:
 - President
 - Vice-President
 - Secretary
- B. Officers shall be elected from among active membership, by majority vote in annual elections.
- C. Officers shall serve for a period of one (1) year or until their successors have been selected or elected and installed.

- D. The President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Chapter and shall preside over all General Membership and CEB meetings. Call meetings of the CEB, create special committees, as needed, appoint the members and officials of such committees, appoint at-large delegates to Executive Council meetings of the Local Union, recommend appointments to Office and CEB vacancies, occurring between elections, and exercise such other authority and powers as may be deemed necessary for the effective functioning and preservation of the organization.
- E. The Vice-President shall assist the President in the performance of duties and responsibilities of that office; perform the duties of President when the President is absent or otherwise unable to perform the functions of office; and shall be an ex-officio voting member of all special standing committees.
- F. The Secretary shall be responsible for recording the Minutes of all meetings of the Membership and the CEB and shall, file and distribute same as needed. The Secretary shall also maintain all records and correspondence of the Chapter and shall provide administrative support to the President and Vice-President on Chapter and Union matters.
- G. All officers of the Chapter shall act as stewards of the General Membership and shall be empowered to represent the Chapter individually or collectively in meetings with the Local Union and Management.

VI. NOMINATION, VOTING AND ELECTION OF CHAPTER OFFICERS

- A. Every member in good standing shall have the right to nominate and vote for candidates for office.
- B. Every member in good standing, as specified in Section III of these By-Laws, and qualified under provisions of the Local Union's Constitution, IFPTE Local 21, shall be eligible to hold office.
- C. The recall and removal from office of any CEB member shall be by written petition signed by not less than five (5) active members. This petition shall include a written statement and documented reasons for removal, and shall be presented to the CEB for notification and the calling of a special membership meeting. Active Chapter members shall cast ballots either for or against the recall and removal of said CEB member(s). The outcome shall be determined by the majority of votes cast.
- D. CEB positions to be filled shall be established by resolution of the active members at a General Membership meeting during the month of APRIL. Once the number of positions has been established, specific notice of date, time and place of meeting, for nominations for CEB offices involved, shall be given to all members in writing at least five (5) days prior to the date of the designated meeting.

- E. The CEB shall establish Rules and Procedures governing the requirements for nominations and elections of CEB members. Such Rules shall include the right of each nominee to request and receive a complete name and roster of the voting membership. The Rules shall also require a secret ballot for elections. The rules shall be distributed and presented for approval at the beginning of any Membership meeting to which applicable.
- F. There shall be open nominations by active Chapter members for candidates for election to CEB, at a Membership meeting as called for under these By-Laws. Nominations shall be closed at the end of the meeting.
- G. Nominations meeting shall be held annually, during the month of MAY, in preparation of the Chapter Officers elections.
- H. Chapter Officers election meeting shall be held during the month of JUNE
- I. Any questions of eligibility of candidates that are nominated for office shall be addressed to the CEB, who will decide within twenty-four (24) hours by referring to the list of eligible members.
- J. Once the slate of nominations is finalized at the close of the nominations meeting, ballots will be prepared by the Local Union office and sent by mail to the latest home addresses on record of the Chapter membership. The ballots will include the name of the candidate, office to be filled deadline for ballots to be delivered and election date. Each voting member shall cast one ballot, seal and return same, as per given instructions therein, to the Local Union office.
- K. There shall be no proxy vote. Each member in good standing shall be entitled to one vote.
- L. The sealed ballots will be collected by the Chapter Secretary on the day of the election meeting. No ballots shall be accepted after the established deadline. The sealed ballots will be tallied by the Chapter Secretary, as the first order of business.
- M. When there are two or more candidates for the same Office, the candidate receiving the highest number of ballots cast shall be declared elected. A Plurality of ballots may elect a candidate. In the event of a tie vote, run-off elections shall be held to resolve the tie for the office in question.
- N. Protests concerning the ruling or eligibility of voters and the conduct and validity of the election shall be filed within forty-eight (48) hours with the Chapter Officers, who shall make a decision within seven (7) days. The CEB shall determine which officers and or members shall conduct the affairs of the Chapter pending final resolution of the protest. Decisions of the Chapter Officers shall be binding, subject to appeal as provided in the Local Union Constitution.

- O. Installation of newly elected officers shall take place, as the first order of business at a special meeting within fifteen (15) calendar days following the election.
- P. All nominations and election records, including the minutes of the nomination and election meetings, and a tally of the cast ballots, shall be preserved for a period of two (2) years.
